LESSON SERMON

"God" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which was read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, January 7th.

The Golden Text was: "O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou made heaven and earth." (Isaiah 37:16).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him." (Matt. 6:5-8).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If we are not to be weary and open to temptation for the accomplishment of all we ask, our prayers are vain repetitions, such as the heathen use. If our petitions are sincere, we labour for what we ask, and

Canadian High Commissioner III
Dr. Alington of Eton:
Harrow's Challenge:
Bequest To Tate Gallery:
Three Picassos:
Pope's New Lift:

(Special Air-Mail Service)

London, December 20.
CANADA'S HIGH COMMISSIONER

The Canadian High Commissioner, Mr. Howard Ferguson, has had a severe attack of pneumonia, which has kept him out of London's public life for the last month.

I hear from Mrs. Ferguson that he is now well on the road to recovery, but will not be able to leave his home for another week or two. Mr. Ferguson has been Prime Minister of Ontario, and should Mr. Bennett at any time elect to relinquish the leadership of the Conservative party in Canada, his claim to the succession would be strongly urged.

His eyesight has troubled him throughout his public career, but his vigorous, enthusiastic personality has enabled him to surmount the handicap. Ever since he first came to London three years ago he has worked wholeheartedly to strengthen the ties of sentiment and commerce between Canada and the Mother Country.

ETON'S HEAD

Eton will break up next week for the Christmas holidays after its first half under Mr. Claude Elliott, the new headmaster.

By all accounts Mr. Elliott has in the space of three months gained the complete support of both masters and boys.

He has, I hear, adhered to his publicly declared intention at the time of his appointment: "Until I get to Eton and see things for myself, I cannot make any plans." A REMARKABLE ACHIEVEMENT. The new headmaster's achievement is remarkable because he lacks several advantages enjoyed by his predecessor, Dr. Alington.

In the first place, Dr. Alington had the opportunity of being able to address the school each Sunday in chapel. That opportunity was denied to Mr. Elliott, since he is not in Holy Orders.

In the past it has also been customary for the Head Master to take Sixth Form regularly in classics. Mr. Elliott's forte, however, is history.

In this subject he has taken the Sixth Form a few times. I gather that he hopes to do so more frequently next half.

The smooth running of the Eton machine during this half is, I think, a proof that Mr. Elliott has made good in the eyes of a particularly critical body of judges.

THE ETON SWISHING BLOCK

Those who left Bridgewater House early last evening missed the most exciting part of the auction held there in aid of the Personal Service League.

It was not till 11.45 that Mr. Shane Leslie went on to the rostrum to offer the old Eton swishing block for sale.

Its history has already been given in these notes, together with an intimation that Harrow proposed to make a big bid to secure this relic of the rival school.

HARROW'S STRONG CHALLENGE

The challenge was a strong one, and there were moments when the scene seemed reminiscent of Lord's during a close finish at an Eton and Harrow match.

Although the company of bidders by that hour had been reduced from over 2,000 to a hundred or two, the shouts for the rival schools were vociferous. When Eton won the day and the swishing block at £450 over Harrow's last bid of £430 the jubilation was great.

THE QUEEN A SPECTATOR

The Queen, who had been an interested spectator from the gallery of all the previous bidding, was on the point of leaving when the Eton block was brought on.

She turned back and leaned over the balcony to enjoy the tense proceedings below. She had been at Bridgewater House throughout the morning making extensive private purchases.

A TOO POPULAR AUCTION

In the early stages of the auction the crowd was so great that many were unable to hear what was going on. To make things worse, as a result some wonderful bargains were obtained.

Many priceless works of art were knocked down at half their value. None the less, the charity must have benefited by many thousands of pounds.

MR. RUNCIMAN'S HOLIDAY

There may have been a time in the nineteenth century when the President of the Board of Trade justified the lines:

This highly placed official is grossly overpaid:

There never was a board, and now there isn't any trade.

Certainly they are inapplicable to the present holder of the office. Indeed, there is probably no member of the Cabinet more entitled to his Christmas holiday than Mr. Runciman.

He is going first to his Northumberland home, and then to Elgig, his beloved inland off the West Coast of Scotland.

"FINALISED"

I do not suppose that Mr. Jeanes, Secretary of the Australian Board of Control, imagined when he penned his happy tale yesterday that he had added a new word to the English language.

"We now," he said, "regard the position finalised." The Oxford Dictionary, from which the secrets of no words are hid, does not know the verb to "finalise." It known now.

Let no pedant object that Mr. Jeanes's use is merely incorrect. On the contrary, it is a new creation, and as it is the "bodyline" bowling controversy which is "finalised," let us pass over it the heavy roller of oblivion.

THE POPE'S NEW LIFT

At 76 years of age, Pope Pius XI, must be grateful for the new lift which an electrical engineer from Milan has planned for his exclusive use.

It carries him from his private apartments through a ceiling and into the basilica of St. Peter's.

Starting from the sacristy of the Pauline chapel in the Papal Palace, it stops in the chapel of the Pietà in St. Peter's.

MORICE BIRD'S RECORD

Mr. Morice Bird, the Surrey cricketer, whose funeral took place yesterday, was to Harrow what Fowler was to Eton, and like many players, he never exceeded the glory of his early years.

The Eton and Harrow match of 1907 provided the greatest moment of his career. He led Harrow to victory by 79 runs and, besides taking several wickets, made scores of 100 not out and 136—a feat without precedent in this match.

His father, himself a Middlesex cricketer, watched his play with feelings which can easily be imagined. Beside him sat Bird's old preparatory schoolmaster, and when the hero of the day completed his second century they shook hands with the remark, "Owner and Trainer!"

MR. QUINTIN HOGG HONOURED

Most young men are content to be judged by comparison with their own generation.

But Mr. Quintin Hogg, the 28-year-old son of Lord Hailsham, who has been chosen as one of the speakers in the "Whither Britain?" series of broadcasts, is to become a competitor with his elders.

Those who are to take part with him in this series of talks are Mr. Winston Churchill, Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Bernard Shaw, Mr. H. G. Wells, Mr. Walter Elliot, Mr. Ernest Bevin and Viscountess Rhonda.

Mr. Hogg's age, I find, falls short of the average age of these speakers by thirty-eight years.

It is a formidable gulf, but judging from the powers which he has already displayed, he is likely to confirm the wisdom of his selection.

PICTURES FOR THE NATION

The Tate Gallery has just received one of the most important bequests in its history.

It consists of seventeen pictures of the modern French school. Until his death five weeks ago they formed the pick of the collection of Mr. Cornelius Frank Stoop. He was a connoisseur of Dutch extraction who lived in London.

The pictures will be on view tomorrow for the first time in the main French room of the gallery.

Their acquisition makes the Tate collection of modern French art the most comprehensive in any public gallery in Europe, with the possible exception of the Museum of Western Art in Moscow.

THREE PICASSOS

The bequest includes three Picassos, of which two are important oil paintings. A large, free-late Vincent Van Gogh "Landscape at Arles," "Le Torero" by Matisse, a fine large Degas pastel, and a small, called "Le Toilette," and a Georges Braque.

There are also two oil paintings by Cezanne, one an unfinished still life, the other a portrait of an old man, "The Gardener."

SUEZ MENACE TO BRITISH TRADE

£60,000,000 Profits In Thirty Years

The owners of the Suez Canal, who are holding up British Shipping to ransom by imposing excessive dues, are exposed by Sir Arnold Wilson, M. P.

Net profits of the Suez Canal amounted, between 1870 and 1932, to £137,800,000.

Disraeli for the British Government, invested £4,000,000 in Suez Canal shares. The British Government have received in dividends £38,000,000. They hold 48 per cent. of the shares. Most of the rest is held in France.

All the profits have come out of the dues imposed on shipping, about half of which is British. About half the profits therefore come out of the coffers of the British shipping companies.

"ON THE SPOT"

Sir Arnold Wilson puts the directors on the spot in a book, "The Suez Canal: Its Past, Present, and Future," just published (Oxford University Press, 15s.).

The company is probably the world's best-run from the point of view of directors. There are thirty-two of them. For the five years, 1928-32 they drew about £329,000.

In thirty years the shareholders received about £60,560,000 on their original investment, or more than seven times as much as their capital.

The dividends have varied this century between 25 and 44 per cent.

The current dues are equivalent, Sir Arnold says, to 7s. 10d. per net ton, British registry.

A British coal boat of 2,800 tons (3,700 Suez Canal measurement) would have to pay £1,226 at par for going through the Suez Canal or 3s. 5d. a ton.

more inefficient workers and the redundant staff found in many undertakings. The loss of time in undertakings is mainly due to delay in starting machinery and to stopping it before the hour fixed. The control of hours of work is purely formal and is limited to noting the times of arrival and departure of the workers. Defects in the production plans and the absence of supervision in regard to the utilisation of materials have necessitated the establishment of reserve shifts or of third shifts, where only two should have been required. The bad organisation of warehouses and stores of material, the unsatisfactory execution of repairs, and the inadequacy of the instructions given to the workers have led to frequent stoppages of machinery, considerable damage, and excessive production of spoilage goods. Skilled labour is often employed on work not requiring skill, and the shortage of skilled workers is thus aggravated, the effect being felt in the cost of production.

The report states further that there is widespread relaxation of labour discipline and that discussion, gossip, and social functions take place during working hours leading to considerable loss of time. Night work is said to be carried on in a very irregular way during the first half of the year, even when beyond supervision and work with serious delays, with the result that towards the end of the month it becomes necessary to resort to overtime in order to complete

"RAFTER ROMANCE"

Comedy At The Central

A delightful comedy crammed with rib-tickling situations guaranteed to evoke every laugh in your system was presented at the Central Theatre last night in "Rafter Romance" which is enacted by an able cast well versed in the finesse of eliciting roars and chuckles headed by the pert, vivacious and peppy Ginger Rogers, co-featured with Norman Foster and George Sidney.

The theme of "Rafter Romance" is entertainingly refreshing with its spicy intrigue. Mary Carroll and Jack Bacon are obliged to share a Greenwich Village attic room together—but with the entire propriety. Jack, a struggling artist, is a night watchman from 8 P.M. to 8 A.M., during which Mary has the room; Mary is an ice-box salesgirl the other half of the day, when Jack occupies the room. They neither know nor see each other, intensely dislike each other, are intensely born of nasty notes, annoying pranks and caustic opinions passed through the landlord.

Jack and Mary meet outside their garret abode, however, unaware of their attic enmity. While antipathy rages indoors, a love affair progresses outside. Both situations come to climax simultaneously when they learn each other's real identity.

Miss Rogers and Foster are genial performers, well acquainted with the art of cinema acting. Their performances are splendid.

Queen's Theatre

"Penthouse" the Metro Goldwyn Mayer film which is now being shown at the Queen's theatre is most interesting. It has been compared by Critics to be equally as delightful as "42nd Street", and we do not hesitate to endorse their opinion. The story revolves around New York's night life and is fascinating—the cast is an exceptionally strong one, the leads being taken care of by Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy. Warner is cast as the society lawyer, and as such does some remarkable acting. Miss Loy is Gertie Waxed and a friend of the lawyer. She becomes attached to him, and he eventually falls in love with her after his fiancée turns him down since he insists in defending a gangster. The result of the team work in this picture is worthy of special mention. The cast is as follows:

Jackson Durrant.....Warner Baxter
Gertie Waxed.....Myrna Loy
Layton.....Charles Butterworth
Mimi Montagne.....Mae Clarke
Tom Siddall.....Phillips Holmes
Jim Crelliman.....C. Henry Gordon
Sue Leonard.....Martha Sleeper
Tony Gazotti.....Nat Pendleton
Murdoch.....George E. Stone
Stevens.....Robert Emmett O'Connor
Bodyguard.....Raymond Hutton
Bodyguard.....Arthur Belasco

and these roles beautifully suit their engaging personalities. Robert Benchley, Laura Hope Crews, George Sidney, Ferlie Borso, Guinn Williams and Sidney Miller, and capable performances.

ARIZONA TO BROADWAY

Coming to the King's

"One Man's Journey" with Lionel Barrymore in the leading male role is a powerful human drama. He is cast as a country doctor, and is seen at his best. He devotes his life to helping those in need and suffering, he is marvelous in this characterization. Miss Dorothy Jordan as the little waif whom the doctor picks up and rears and loves as his own will enchant you in her clever portrayal. Joel McCrea is cast as the doctor's son who falls a victim to Miss Dee's charms. This is decidedly Barrymore's picture, but the others are excellent in their support of the star. Miss May Robson as the veteran housekeeper does admirable work.

"Arizona to Broadway", the new Fox comedy with its local clear across the United States, is to have its premiere at the King's Theatre on Wednesday. James Dunn, cast in the leading masculine role, has a new leading lady playing opposite him. She is Joan Bennett who makes her return to the screen after a protracted absence of several months. Herbert Mundin is co-featured with the two stars, in a role that is entirely new for him. The adventures barker of a medicine show who becomes a big-city big-shot. Starting in the wilds of Arizona, the plot of the film moves east until it end right in the heart of New York.

New York. From the adventure-some gambling of the midway it goes to the business-like hijacking of the Great White Way. It takes a small time confidence man, portrayed by James Dunn, and dumps him into the midst of big-time racketeering in the metropolis. Dunn is out to do a little high class hijacking against a girl he accidentally meets at a carnival. He pretends to protect her interests at first. And indeed he does with intentions of getting a large swag later. He delays too long, however, and finds himself enmeshed in something to which he has never given so much as a thought. Love it does take a lot of warfare on the part of New York gangsters to convince him of it, but convinced he most certainly is.

The supporting cast includes a group of players known to screen fans over the country. Among them are Sammy Cohen, Theodore Von Eltz, Merna Kennedy, Eddie Fox, David Wengren, J. Carroll Naish, Max Wagner, Walter Catlett.

The direction is by James T. Telling from the original screen-play by William Omselmann and Henry Johnson.

ONE MAN'S JOURNEY

Barrymore's Brilliant Acting

"One Man's Journey", new starring vehicle for Lionel Barrymore, offers a notable cast and a pretentious production for a beautifully told human interest drama.

In the stellar role is Lionel Barrymore, contributing a splendid characterization of a self-sacrificing doctor, a role affording ideal opportunity for convincing realism. The featured supporting cast includes favorite players who have seen long cinematic service in leading parts, namely: May Robson, Joel McCrea, Dorothy Jordan and Frances Dee. The remainder of the cast notably comprises Oscar Apfel, David Langdon, James Bush, Sam Hinds and Hale Hamilton, all stage and screen veterans.

Because of the time span of more than thirty years covered by the story, an unusual number and variety of background were provided for "One Man's Journey". An entire rural village was constructed, from the general store to the hitching post. The operating room of a large Hollywood hospital was duplicated. More than a score of home interiors were built and fitted with furnishings ranging from those of the present day to the style of three decades ago.

Against these background, Barrymore is seen as a country doctor who devotes his life and services to the healing of poverty-ridden patients, and who forgives debts, and who is constantly baffled in his ambition to study for a specialized career.

Miss Jordan is said to offer an intense characterization as a waif

DRIVING WITHOUT LICENSE And On Somebody Else's Cycle

A Chinese youth named Ng Fook Cheung, appeared before Mr. Hamilton at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning, charged with (a) driving without a license and (b) without the permission of the owner of the car.

Defendant pleaded guilty to both the charges.

The officer for the prosecution, told the Court that while he was on duty at about 12 p.m. last Wednesday night, he saw defendant riding a motor-cycle. He followed the defendant and asked him for his license, but defendant failed to produce it, and it was then discovered that the motor-cycle was not his own.

A fine of $10 on each charge was imposed.

LIFE-BANISHEE RETURNS

Arrested And Sent To Gaol.

Yau Yau, a life-banished, pleaded guilty before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday to a breach of his Deportation Order.

It was stated by the Police that the defendant was a life-banished, having been sent away from the Colony on 21st February 1929. He was seen and arrested by a Chinese detective in Yau-mat on Friday afternoon.

Defendant told His Worship that he only returned back to Colony to ask his friend for some clothes.

A sentence of one year's hard labour was passed.

HEAVY FINE IMPOSED

Chinese Charged For Keeping Prostitutes.

As a result of Police raids on Friday night, a Chinese named Lo Shau appeared in the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday morning, on a charge of keeping sly-brothels at No. 83 Park Street, 2nd Floor, Yau-mat.

Detective-Inspector Hynes who prosecuted, told His Worship that during the raids, several girls were found in the house.

The Magistrate imposed a heavy fine of $250 or three months imprisonment.

An ex-banished who was charged before Mr. Balfour on Saturday with loitering and with possession of an offensive weapon was sentenced to three months' hard labour. The man was arrested as he was leaving 61 Wellington Street with a pick-lock in one hand and a small chisel in the other.

NAVY WIN TRIANGULAR TOURNAMENT

Selby Disappoints: Changes Suggested For Club

(BY "WING THREE")

By the defeat of the Club on Saturday the Navy have won the Triangular Rugby Tournament at Happy Valley.

They have not held this shield since the 1931-1932 season. None can have any regrets that they have won it for they are doubtless one of the finest fifteens that have ever taken the field in the Colony.

There was an excellent attendance among whom were His Excellency the Governor, Sir William Peel, K.C.M.G., K.B.E., and Lady Peel, H.E. the Commander-in-Chief, Admiral Sir Frederick Charles Dreyer, K.C.B., C.B.E., and Lady Dreyer, H.E. The General Officer Commanding the Troops in China, Major-General O. C. Borrett, C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., D.S.O., and his A.D.C., Lt. F. R. L. Mears, R.O.R., the Hon. Inspector General of Police, Mr. E. D. G. Wolfe, C.M.G., and Mrs. Wolfe, Mr. J. W. C. Bonnar, Mr. G. P. Lammert and Mr. H. A. Lammert.

A Well-Deserved Win

The final result of a goal, a penalty goal and two tries (15 points) to nil was well deserved, though perhaps the Club were unfortunate in not getting a try from Lammert's brilliant effort towards the middle of the second half.

The Navy pack as usual were superior, though with Lt. Miers away during part of the second half the Club were more successful in the scrum, getting it out 4 times in 10. By the way why isn't Selby dropped from the club side? He is nowhere near the player he was, he is slow and his tackling is hopeless. It was only necessary to compare his play with that of Forbes to note his weakness. To keep a player in a side for just occasional glimpses of an earlier skill is asking for trouble.

Navy Open Scoring

The Navy opened the scoring within the first five minutes of the game when Forbes scrambled over the Club line from a scrum down on the Club's five-yard line. Linton failed to convert the effort.

From the kick-off the Club pressed, Selby selling the dummy to Forbes, one of his few clever bits of work by selling the dummy to Forbes to break through. Buckley, however, tackled him as he swerved grasping him.

From the resultant scrum down the Club pressed, but Miers and his back-tackled determinedly, during which period the former was injured and left the field with a wrenched knee. He, however, returned in three minutes.

From a scrum down the Navy three were set going by Forbes who slung out a lovely pass, but Garwood who except for this played a fine game being quite as useful as Selby, handled badly to drop Marsh's pass and spoil what might have resulted in a try.

From the resultant scrum down Forbes flashed the ball to Miers who took the Club's defence by surprise when he dropped a lovely goal, bringing the Navy's total to seven.

Before the interval the Navy dominated the play and it was chiefly due to Whitham's stifling defence that kept them out. Garwood tried a solo run but was tackled round the neck by Whitham and had to leave the field suffering from a wrenched neck. He, however, soon returned.

Just before the interval the Navy went further ahead when Miers sent Wooten over for a try on the left touchline, Buckley just failing with the kick.

In the second half the Navy played a depleted team, Miers leaving the field for good after 10 minutes' play, Hammett dropping out of the scrum to fill the vacancy.

Just on time Garwood put the issue beyond doubt when he cut through from a scrum down to go over near the posts, Linton converted easily.

Summary of Club Play

The pack were trying better but as usual found the heavy Navy forwards too much. King has certainly justified his selection. Moutrie and Stewart certainly do not. Cumming is far more useful and also Moutrie should get in on account of his height. Of the three Lammert as usual in spite of very little work to do—proves himself easily the pick. Griffiths might well be dropped, the way he hangs on to the ball being painful.

He only gave one pass to Lammert during the whole of the second half and from that pass Lammert almost scored. Not only that but the Club insiders were not taking their man. Turner played well at stand-off and Whitham was a tower of strength.

Of Selby we have made mention, but I feel that he, Moutrie, Stewart and Griffiths should be replaced, though Griffiths might do if he would only realize that he is not fast, has only a medium swerve and therefore cannot bore through successfully. He has still the best wing-three in the Colony—barring St. Clair Ford—on his left, and should use him.

Captain Gottwalds refereed and lined up the following:

THE PRODUCE OF THE NEW TERRITORIES

Farmers Receive Encouragement and Advice

HON. MR. J. P. BRAGA OPENS ANNUAL SHOW

There were many visitors to Shek Wai Hui over the week-end when the new Territories Agricultural Association held their Annual Show. The entries were very good indeed and some of the exhibits reached a satisfactory standard.

In addition to the show, there was a programme of theatricals and musical entertainment while lectures were also delivered. The gates were opened at 10.30 a.m. on Saturday morning and the exhibits were judged between 11 and 12.30.

At 2.30 p.m. the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga performed the opening ceremony and in the course of his speech said: "It is no prophetic prediction when I state that the day will come when the inhabitants of Hong Kong will look upon the farmers of the New Territories as a very important asset of the Colony." He encouraged the farmers to employ modern methods and stated that there was plenty of room in the markets of Hong Kong for a larger production from the New Territories.

REV. MR. WELLS REVIEWS THE YEAR

There were 3,472 entries, and over 300 exhibitors. Great attention appeared to have been paid to the laying out of the exhibits and they proved quite attractive to the visitors.

As in former years Lady Ho Tung's exhibits occupied a prominent place and the vegetables and luscious fruits from her farm very outstanding.

Another interesting section was that of the Tat Tak School from Ping Shan, who exhibited the produce cultivated by the pupils themselves. The Hon. Mr. Braga was so impressed by the results of the students efforts that he promised the school a souvenir to encourage them in their good work.

The Botanical and Forestry Department put up an excellent collection of vegetables and fruits, which, as on previous occasions were both well laid out and were of a very good quality.

In the fruit section of the exhibition, the farmers touched a very high mark, the papayas, oranges and lemons, and the Chinese melons were comparable with some of the best produce imported to the Colony while the size and quality of Taroos, Yams and Potatoes were as good as any that can be found in the local markets.

The cattle section proved interesting, but the poultry section surpassed expectation. Most of the exhibits were of Chinese poultry and there are distinct signs that the farmers of the New Territories are beginning to last to produce better specimens. Some Manila ducks at this section were very pretty and commanded a good deal of attention.

The prize distribution took place yesterday, Mr. E. H. Williams giving away the prizes to winning exhibitors. It is understood that $800 was distributed to the farmers in the course of the prize distribution.

MR. H. R. WELLS

The Rev. Mr. H. R. Wells, in calling upon Mr. Braga to declare the Show open, said:—Mr. Braga, ladies and gentlemen. We feel highly honoured that you, Sir, have consented to come to the Show and declare it open. We owe much to you on account of the efforts you made in our first year and much also on account of your continued interest in the problems of the people in the New Territories.

This Association has now been in existence for 3 years and once more we are holding the annual show.

The shows have been held for 3 years, and it must be confessed that the quality of some articles has not greatly improved, but in other cases such as papayas, and tomatoes, there is very marked improvement.

We are not here to-day to praise our achievements, but we look to those who honour us by opening the shows to indicate to us in what way we may improve our work.

Our real object is to improve the conditions of the farmers, and other residents on the Territories, and various plans have been suggested. Amongst others we have been helping a school to carry on a small experimental field and employed an assistant to advise farmers.

It was at one time intended to operate a loan scheme, but on His Excellency the Governor stating that this would hinder him from becoming our President we omitted that part of our plan.

Assisting the Farmer. But it is still our aim to assist the people in various ways, such as in providing more and better seed, and fertilisers and plants and in propaganda, leading to improved methods of Agriculture, and also in assisting the people to market their goods on a cooperative basis.

Much of our time this year has been given to discussion of the details of such a scheme, and we have evolved a plan which must depend for its fulfilment on the willingness on the part of the people to take shares in the proposed scheme.

If it should prove that they are not willing to do this, our energies must be diverted into another channel.

We have considered various proposals for improving the water supply, and if the Government would support some of these schemes it might be the means of saving many crops.

In 1933 the first crop was not good owing to continued drought, and, in fact, in both rice crops the results have not been up to standard. But a much larger supply of vegetables has been grown, and this has saved the situation for many farmers.

Much attention has also been given to question connected with live stock, and poultry.

It is well known that many animals die of various kinds of disease and we are endeavouring to find out real methods of saving the animals from the result of such disease.

We do not yet know whether the diseases are peculiar to South China, or are general diseases which attack animals everywhere. Enquiries from Ling Nan University reveal the fact that they have not yet found an effective method to save animals in times of epidemic diseases, and the sudden death of various fowls in the district which were reared under the best possible conditions, but succumbed to disease in the same way as any common fowl of the district, puzzles extremely.

We are still studying the subject of fowls, and would welcome any help in solving the problems. The suggestions of those who formerly opened the shows year by year have been considered, but lack of funds has hindered us so far from doing all that we should like to do.

Permanent Building.

Steps have been taken to look for a suitable site for our permanent building, but the site has not yet been found. The matter is constantly before us and a sub-committee is engaged in the search.

The campaign for securing funds for the year's work was conducted by Mr. Chiu Kam To who had the able assistance of Dr. Y. H. Tiao of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. We are glad to say that though our friends were unable to secure all they were aiming for, we have received enough to carry on to the present.

Once more we must record our gratitude to various friends. Sir Robert and Lady Ho Tung have continued to assist by placing at our disposal their building at Tung Ying-Hok Po for meetings and operating with us in every task connected with the promotion of Agriculture in the New Territories.

Both Mr. J. D. Bush and Mr. C. Tebel have been indefatigable in their efforts to assist our work and Mr. Fung Ki Cheuk has continued to assist in his usual generous ways, by giving his time, money and energy in the interests of the Association.

Mr. Tang Wai Tong and others have constantly shown unflinching interest in everything pertaining to the Association and the Annual shows.

Addressing the gathering, Mr. Braga said:

"SACRIFICE FOR CHINA"

Young Marshal's Message For The People

There was a very large gathering at the wharf to meet the Conte Verde when she came into port on Saturday afternoon, for one of the prominent people on board was Marshal Chang Hsueh Liang, the Young Marshal, who is returning to North China after an absence of about a year in Europe.

Dr. Lo Wen Kuan, Minister of Justice in the Nanking Government and former minister of Foreign Affairs was among the large gathering of political friends who were waiting on the wharf.

Interviewed by Press representatives, the Young Marshal said that he was returning to China in response to the request of the Nanking Government. He denied however, that he had accepted the post of Director of the military Advisory Council.

"Have you a message for the Chinese people?" he was asked. In order to save China, the young men and women of China, must sacrifice themselves," he said. "Living is not the only thing, but it is the way you live that is the essential thing. Sacrifice and work for China; that is my message."

Mr. Wells, Elders of the New Territories, Ladies and Gentlemen,—Pleasantly and profitably associated with some of you for several weeks six years ago in organising the first agricultural show for the New Territories, I was on the occasion of the inaugural ceremony of that Show one of you in our experimental undertaking. I have New Territories, I was on the occasion when the Show and held in Lady Ho Tung's Sheung Shui farm—the Tung Ying Hok Po—and when the then Governor, Sir Cecil Clementi, G.C.M.G., performed the opening ceremony.

A lot of water has run under the bridge during the past six years. With much patience and a commendable spirit of enterprise after year you have come forward with a collection of the best of the produce of the New Territories so as to convince the inhabitants of Hong Kong how your industry, your toil and your devotion form so important a part in the essential services of Hong Kong and Kowloon.

I feel it a great honour to be taking so prominent a part in the New Territories Agricultural Show of 1934. My first obligation is to express to you my cordial thanks for the invitation. My next duty is to voice my gratification at the presence of such old and esteemed associates as the Rev. Mr. Wells, Mr. Fung Ki Cheuk, Mr. H. Green, Mr. Tang Wai Tong, Mr. Tong Pak Kan and the other Chinese gentlemen of the New Territories with whom I have had the pleasure of working before. I am glad also to see among us Lady Ho Tung, whose practical interest in the New Territories has found visible expression in her benefactions to the people of these Territories.

Until I am taken around these extensive grounds and have had an opportunity of inspecting the produce of your fields, I may not be doing you full justice by stating the exact extent of my appreciation. By what you have shown in the past, however, and specially what you were capable of collecting for the two British Empire Fairs held at Kowloon, I am constrained to say that the present Show will be equal to, if not actually surpass, those of former years.

I think there is every reason for satisfaction that the produce of your fields has increased both in quantity and variety, until you were able to get together a collection of over 120 varieties for the first British Empire Fair. Thanks to improved means of transportation, especially facilities of motor conveyance and the operation of the vehicular ferry, vegetables from the New Territories find their way to-day in increasing quantities into the markets of Kowloon and Hong Kong. No more pleasing sight meets the eye of the resident travelling by the vehicular ferries than the daily truck-loads of succulent vegetables on their way to the markets in Hong Kong.

Allusion has been made by your spokesman to the interest shown in your Show, and I referred to our share of the success in the British Empire Fair. That interest in your work is very real is established by the fact, strange as it may appear to you, that the British Empire Fair in Hong Kong originated in a modest suggestion from Lady Peel in pursuance of the programme of Empire Food on Empire Day for the consumption in Hong Kong of potatoes from the New Territories. To that simple and modest suggestion the Empire Fairs owe their origin. From the consumption of New Territories potatoes by the inhabitants of Hong Kong on Empire Day, the idea broadened into one of other produce from

MOTOR ACCIDENT AT SHEUNGSHUI

Chinese Lad Killed

A fatal motor accident occurred at Sheung Shui, near Sir Robert Ho Tung's Farm on Saturday afternoon when two boys riding on a bicycle were run into by a public motor vehicle, one of them being fatally injured. The boys who were between the ages of 15 and 17 were apparently on their way from Un Lung to Sheungshui. The car which was going in the opposite direction crashed into them with such force that one of the boys was thrown on the radiator of the car which was indented. The other boy was thrown on the ground, receiving a gash in the forehead. The Sheungshui police were immediately informed, and the unfortunate lad who fell on the radiator was immediately taken to the station where an ambulance was sent for. He received terrible injuries in the stomach, and before the ambulance arrived he died. The number of the car is at present unknown, the driver having driven off immediately after the accident.

FISHING-BOATS DISASTER

Collided On Account Of Heavy Fog

Latest information from the Chinese sources states that during the week-end, two large fishing-boats, the "Kong On" and "Wang Fat Cheung" were involved in a collision near "Sha Yui Chung" off the shore of the Wai Yang District, owing to heavy fog.

During the collision, both ships suffered severe damages and sank after a few minutes.

The other fishing-boats, which accompanied, witnessed the accident and gave every possible assistance in saving the passengers as well as their cargoes, but owing to heavy seas only the passengers could be rescued.

It is reported that the total amount of the losses sustained was about $20,000.

the New Territories until the Farm section of the Fair became not the least important in the Exhibition.

I would impress upon the farmers the need for welcoming advice from your sponsors—the New Territories Agricultural Association—in whom you find your best guides, counsellors and friends. Fertilization of the soil, better seeds, greater productivity eradication of insect pests, proper irrigation, the utilisation of labour-saving implements and devices, and quick transportation, are axiomatic truths which, I trust, might be accepted so that the results of your labour might be made in the future much more fruitful and materially profitable to yourselves than in the past.

I have stated that New Territories produce is going in larger quantities into the market of Hong Kong and Kowloon. Increasingly large as the quantity is becoming from year to year, it is still very far short of the entire quantity consumed within the limits of the Colony. In fact, there is still plenty of room for a larger production of New Territories vegetables and fruit, and also of poultry and eggs. As to the last mentioned your production is infinitesimal compared with the imported article. I am given to understand that the demand is always there, and if your fields and farm could be made to produce twice, five, or even ten times as much as you are producing to-day, your produce will find a ready, and willing market to absorb it, provided, of course, the quality is maintained.

Mr. Wells attributes the credit of the Agricultural Shows to various persons and associations. He cheerfully omits any reference to himself. I wish to fill in the hiatus and offer to him for myself any my fellow-guests our sincere congratulations for the achievements of the New Territory Association and of the farmers. To gentlemen like Mr. Fung Ki Cheuk, Mr. Tang Wai Tong, Mr. J. D. Bush, Mr. Teitel, on whom the burden of the secretarial work falls, several other willing helpers, I wish to tender by hearty congratulations. The omission of the name of Mr. E. H. Williams, District Officer (North) would be almost unpardonable. I know from experience that the New Territories peasantry has no more ardent friend or zealous supporter. It is no prophetic prediction when I state that the day will come—long when the inhabitants of Hong Kong will look upon the farmers of the New Territories as a very important, if the humblest, of the Colony's assets, in that their daily, unpretentious pursuit yields a moderate portion of the food supplies that are brought on the table of every home in the Colony. For this blessing thanks are due to the farmers within the New Territories of Hong Kong. I subscribe my modest words to this appreciation and in doing so I have pleasure in declaring the Agricultural Show of 1934 open.

SAFETY FIRST CAMPAIGN

Police Initiate The Movement

With the approval of the Government, the Inspector General of Police has been taking steps to initiate, shortly a "Safety First" campaign in the Colony. A large quantity of posters and handbills in English and Chinese has been printed.

A further step was taken at 2.15 p.m. on the 5th instant when, through the courtesy of the Postmaster General, a meeting was held at his office to discuss details of the campaign. There were present the Deputy Inspector General of Police, the Director of Education, the Postmaster General, the Chief Assistant Secretary for Chinese Affairs, the Rev. G. E. S. Updell (Hon. Secretary of the Hong Kong Automobile Association), and the Divisional Superintendent of Police, Kowloon.

The Deputy Inspector General of Police outlined the preparations which had already been made, and intimated that he was assured of the cordial co-operation of the press.

It was decided that the "Safety First" campaign should be commenced on Monday, January 22nd, and continued for two weeks. During this period efforts would be made to render the campaign effective through the following Departments and channels:—

The Chief Assistant Secretary for Chinese Affairs undertook to enlist the help of the Chinese newspapers in publication of the contents of the handbills and posters; also, to obtain, if possible, special advertising facilities for the campaign. It was decided to adopt the home president of the use of an emblem in the shape of a red triangle with the Chinese equivalent of the slogan "Safety First" thereon for display on motor vehicles and in garages during the campaign. The assistance of the District Watchmen Force in the distribution of handbills was promised.

The Director of Education undertook to arrange for short lectures to be given in the schools, in English and Chinese, the subject matter to be taken from pamphlets which have been printed for distribution.

Through the courtesy of the Postmaster General, arrangements will be made for a short announcement to be broadcast daily in English and Chinese on "Safety First." In addition, a special short talk on "Safety First" will be made three times during each week. The Hon. Secretary of the Hong Kong Automobile Association and the Postmaster General undertook to make the necessary arrangements.

The Rev. Updell, on behalf of the Hong Kong Automobile Association, undertook to distribute to members of the Association copies of the handbill designed for motor drivers; also, to distribute copies of the "Safety First" emblem to members for display on their cars and vehicles during the campaign.

The Police Department will undertake the distribution of the posters and pamphlets in Hong Kong and Kowloon—such distribution will be made by Police officers when out on patrol duty and by bill posters specially employed to post placards and handbills. In this connection it may be mentioned that over 200,000 pamphlets in English and Chinese (the great majority in Chinese) have been printed. Further, the European press will be approached with a view to obtaining special advertising facilities in amplification of the editorial and news support which are already assured from the Press. The meeting unanimously approved that the manager of the Hong Kong Tramway Company should be approached to sanction the posting of slogans and handbills in the trams. Similar steps should also be taken with the bus companies.

In addition, the Police Department was commissioned to approach cinema proprietors to exhibit short notices on the "Safety First" campaign at the commencement of the regular performances; and also, if possible, to include in their programmes some material relevant to a "Safety First" campaign on the lines indicated by the Police picture placard of a motor accident.

Communications relating to suggestions or preparations for the "Safety First" campaign are to be addressed to the Divisional Superintendent of Police, Kowloon.

BASIC ENGLISH

With a network of communications covering the greater part of the globe and becoming day by day more efficient in its conquest of space and time, which previously separated the nations, the need for a common language to facilitate commercial intercourse, smooth the path of national friendships, and quicken the understanding of each other's problems forces itself upon our consciousness with urgent insistence.

The idea of a universal tongue to serve as a secondary language in international relationships is indeed not a new one. According to Professor C. K. Ogden (Director of the Orthological Institute in Cambridge, England), within the last three centuries over 300 new languages have been devised and advanced as possible linguistic common denominators for the nations. But whatever following they may have had at the time of their appearance they gradually vanished, and of those at present in existence not one can be said to have commanded any degree of acceptance warranting the hope that it may furnish the missing link.

Many scholars maintain that the reason for this failure lies in the fact that earlier attempts at building universal languages were based on artificial construction.
No inherent life-current was there to invigorate a fabricated product, and the language in question did not survive sufficiently long for time to root it among the peoples.
Determined not to pursue a path which had failed to lead earlier explorers to their goal, Professor Ogden suggested that some simplified form of a living language might serve the purpose. He decided on English, a language which is already the spoken or administrative tongue of half the civilised world, and at the same time is capable of a degree of simplification which cannot be attained in any other European language.

Ten years ago Professor Ogden and his fellow workers in Cambridge commenced this simplification of the English language, and the new form which emerged is called Basic English. The average person uses about 25,000 out of the half-a-million words contained in the English dictionary.
Out of these Basic English has chosen 850 which, with a given set of simple rules, will do everything that 25,000 can achieve. The chief secret of this amazing result is that all superfluous verb-forms have been discarded. Instead of the 4,000 in common use, in Standard English, Basic employs only 18 in their old form. The place of those discarded is taken by simpler verb-forms or by nouns or operations aided by prepositions or adverbs. Naturally, then, Basic is a kind of noun-language, and out of the 850 words in its vocabulary 600 are nouns. Adjectives number 150, verbs and verb-helping words 100. Words in common use all over the world, such as prince, president, etc., are not included in the Basic list. A simple set of rules gives the student the key to the new language, which, it is claimed, can be learned in 24 hours. The entire vocabulary will fill just one sheet of notepaper, and for instructional purposes one single phonograph record will contain the whole system.

Although literary masterpieces have been translated into Basic English with no small degree of success, it is not suggested that the new form may supersede Standard English. Neither does it propose to take the place of other existing languages. Its authors simply claim that as a secondary and universal language it is the best yet offered. Few English text books for foreigners contain less than 4,000 words, and 10,000 words are generally considered necessary before a student can express himself with any degree of fluency and completeness. Basic English, with its vocabulary of 850 words, will achieve this in a fraction of the time usually allotted to the acquisition of a foreign tongue.

Basic English is now being

"A FOOLISH
OUTBURST"Sir S. Cripps' Speech
At Nottingham

London, Jan. 7.
"There is no doubt we have to overcome the Opposition from Buckingham Palace as well as elsewhere," declared the Privy Councillor, Sir Stafford Cripps, in his speech at Nottingham, which will probably have a noisy aftermath.
He was addressing the University Labour Federation and said that when Labour returns to power they will act rapidly, deal with the House of Lords and influence the City of London for opposition to Socialism must be stamped out even if it is necessary to have a private Socialist-Communist army
like the Fascists. Sir Stafford Cripps for some time past has urged a Socialist dictatorship.
"An amazing indiscretion of the King's name in politics," "a foolish outburst and a rash statement," are Press headlines of Sir Stafford Cripps' reference to Buckingham Palace.

Sir Stafford Cripps (who is a
King's Counsellor, not a Privy Counsellor) later said he did not mean the Crown, but referred to Buckingham Palace in a general sense, meaning the Crown's entourage.—Reuter.

Liquor Tax Bill which is estimated to yield U.S.$470,000,000 annually.

The measure was passed by 389 votes to 5.
The Bill provides a tax of U.S.-
$2 per gallon on distilled spirits, U.S.$5 on a barrel of beer, and from four to 40 cents per gallon on wines, according to their alcoholic content.

Wines containing over 24 per cent of alcohol, however, are subject to a U.S. $2 tax per gallon,
the same as spirits.

Blended spirits are taxed at the rate of U.S.$2.30 per gallon.—Reu-

OSSEG MINE

Menacing Attitude[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily

Prague, January 5.
The town of Osseg, scene
of the tragic mine disaster is threatening to become the stage of another tragedy, today, the population assumed such a menacing attitude to the mine officials that the State was forced to pour armed police into the town and asked the public buildings to insure order.

The basis of the bitterness is the popular belief that the mine administration have taken exaggerated measures of economy, is mainly responsible for the catastrophe which ended in permanent entombment of one hundred and sixteen workmen.

Despite the sealing of mine
shafts the raging subterranean fire is not expected to burn itself out under a month, before which time further attempts to remove the corpses is considered useless.—

MAMMOTH FRENCH FRAUD SCANDAL

Resignation of Dalimier Demanded

TWO RADICAL SOCIALISTS MAY BE ARRESTED

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Paris, January 6.

The French newspapers demand, or expect, to-day, the resignation of the Minister of the Colonies, M. Dalimier, who has been criticised with particular severity for his letter recommending the purchase of Credit Municipal Bonds, to Insurance Companies.

M. Dalimier had a long conference on the subject with M. Chautemps, yesterday. M. Chautemps after the conference told Press representatives that M. Dalimier had acted in good faith when he signed the letters.

The arrest of two Radical-Socialist Deputies, M. Garat and M. Bonnaure is also expected. M. Garat is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Credit Municipal, and is charged by its arrested director, Tessier, of having known of the fraud.

Meanwhile, the Police have succeeded in finding Stavinsky's beautiful and elegant wife in whose possession was discovered a wealth of jewellery, such as is not possessed by any queen.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DALADIER REFUSES INVITATION

The Chautemps Cabinet has laid a course dead ahead through the storm of the Stavinsky scandal with no forced changes in the crew of the ship of State on Saturday, when the Premier emerged from a second lengthy interview with Minister of the Colonies, Dalimier, who was suspected of being most seriously involved, and made an official statement clearing Dalimier's good name of all charges made against him to date.

Dalimier's embarrassing recommendations of unsecured municipal credit bonds are declared to prove the Minister's innocence in the nature of the documents which were drawn up by minor departmental officials and submitted to Dalimier for formal signature. Finance Minister Bonnet, whose reputation has also received a handling from gossip, issued an official statement to the effect that he had never laid eyes on Stavinsky and was completely ignorant that his co-worker in the Finance Ministry, Guboud-Ribaud, had ever served as legal counsel of the versatile "Alexandre."

Simultaneously stories going the rounds of the Press regarding relations of Government officials with Stavinsky in the swindler's "palmy" days, began on Saturday to lose their earlier double-edged colour. The present Minister of War, and former Premier, M. Daladier, according to the best of these, is accredited with having rejected the invitation to a gala breakfast in Stavinsky's mansion with a five word letter on Ministerial stationery, "I don't breakfast with sharpers."—Transocean Kuo Min.

OVER SIX MILLION STERLING INVOLVED

Paris, January 7.

"Either you resign or the whole Cabinet resigns," M. Chautemps is reported to have told M. Dalimier, Minister of the Colonies, in connection with the issue of fraudulent bonds on behalf of the Bayonne Municipal Pawn-Broking Establishment, which is considered the most grave political-financial sensation since the Panama affair, half a century ago.

Over six million sterling is now believed to be involved. The whole press is mobilised against the affair which dominates the opening of the Parliamentary Session on Tuesday, when the Government will be subjected to grilling interpellations.

The Government has already promised to scour the scandal to its dregs. Many small investors have been ruined as the bonds were particularly popular.—Reuter.

Paris, January 7.

Madame Stavinsky, wife of the king of crooks, who with her children resided in a first class hotel has disappeared. The hotel management declares it had no idea that the fashionable lady who had registered as Mrs. Simon was in reality the spouse of the famous racketeer.

An agency message from London says that a passenger aboard the steamer Alpha who jumped overboard near the African coast was identical with the description broadcast of Stavinsky.—Transocean Kuo Min.

Lord Justice of Appeal Court

London, January 6.

Sir Frederic Maugham, brother of Mr. Somerset Maugham, the famous novelist, has been appointed a Lord Justice of the High Court of Appeal in place of Sir Paul Ogden Lawrence, who has resigned.—Reuter.

Sir Frederic Maugham has been a Judge of the High Court of Justice (Chancery Division) since 1928. While at Cambridge, he was one of the best oarsmen of his day, gaining his blue in the Boat races of 1888-89. He became a Barrister of Lincoln's Inn in 1890 and a Bench in 1916.

Sir Paul Ogden Lawrence, who was appointed a Lord Justice of Appeal in 1926, was called to the Bar in 1882, and was a Judge of the High Court of Justice from 1918 and 1926. From 1913 to 1918 he was Chairman of the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for England and Wales from 1917 to 1919. From 1910 to 1927 he was a Member of the Rule Committee of the Supreme Court.

GERMAN-FRANCO WAR

"Absurd Rumours" Refuted

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, January 6.

In an interview with the correspondent of a leading Swiss newspaper, the leader of the National Socialist party Reich Minister, Rudolf Hess took occasion once more to refute the malicious reports assiduously spread by certain sections of the foreign press to the effect that Germany intended, in case of neutrality by France, to violate Swiss neutrality by having the German army march through Switzerland in order to outflank France's iron wall of fortresses.

Hess declares that this assertion is so absurd that everyone in Germany, especially military experts, are asking themselves how anyone in his senses could believe such nonsense. "Can anyone conceive," so Hess asked "that Germany, in case of war against France, from which God deliver us, would feel like antagonizing Switzerland? No one in Germany, moreover, believes that two great nations like Germany and France will resort to arms in order to settle their differences. Both these nations know what war means, and Chancellor Hitler has repeatedly expressed the opinion that an attempt to settle differences by force cannot possibly bring about a final solution. This can be assured by honourable peace on a basis of common sense."—Transocean Kuo Min.

SOVIET'S FIGHTING MACHINE

Work Must Go On To Perfect It

Moscow, January 6.

Further strengthening of Soviet Russia's military defence was demanded in a resolution adopted at a conference of superior officers of the Red Army's Moscow division, following a lengthy speech by the Acting War Commissary, Gernaruk, explaining the necessity of increasing the Red Army on the grounds of increased tension in the Far East.

The resolution expresses full confidence in the Government and approves the measures taken but adds that work to perfecting the Soviet Union's fighting machines must never cease.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A SAD END To Distinguished Career

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, January 6.

An adventurous career came to a spectacular end here on Saturday when a taxicab, careering madly through heavy traffic, crashed into a lamp post in the bright light district. In the driver's seat was found the dead body of Colonel Boris Skatschenko, once chief of a crack Cossack troop and owner of vast estates in Czarist Russia. For long down on his luck, the heart of the distinguished ex-warrior had finally failed from purely physical causes.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ANTI-SOVIET CAMPAIGN

By Polish Broadcasting Enterprise

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Warsaw, January 6.

The mystery surrounding persistent anti-Soviet broadcasting in Poland has been partially solved by the proud admission of a Russian émigré journal here on Saturday, that the radio station's backer is an "International Union for combating communism."

The organization's present chairman, moreover, is declared to be the former Belgian Consul at Moscow, Douillet, author of the well-known anti-Red attack, "Moscow Unmasked." Strenuous efforts by the authorities have failed to date to uncover the location of the powerful anti-Soviet transmitter.—Transocean Kuo Min.

REBELS WITHDRAW

Nanking, January 6.

It is reported from Hangchow that the rebels have withdrawn from Taisun within the Chekiang border. Experts are of the opinion that this is due to the defection of the Government forces of General Chen Chi-hsuan.

The Nanking troops in north Fukien are reported to be enveloping Yenping and some fighting occurred yesterday at Hsunganayin on the Chekiang-Fukien border, but the nature of the action was not serious.—Reuter.

THE VALUE OF SILVER

Increase Imminent In U.S.A.

Washington, January 6.

Rumours that action to increase the value of silver is imminent persist in senate circles, and in the expectation of early presidential monetary action, Senator Thomas has agreed to withhold his plan to have a senate subcommittee draft a monetary programme.

Official comment is lacking, but President Roosevelt has made it clear that provision is being made to continue the gold purchases both here and abroad. The trend of opinion is away from paper money and towards gold and silver revaluation, probably a modified form of bimetallicism.

Senator Thomas favours a return to the gold standard as soon as the international situation permits, but at a lower rate.

Senator Borah urges a White House conference between the internationalists and the "hard money" schools, with President Roosevelt as umpire, in order to end the monetary dispute.—Reuter.

SIMON-MUSSOLINI CONFERENCE

Satisfactory Says British Representative

"GOOD SEED" HAS BEEN SOWN IN ROME

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Rome, January 5.

The entire Press features Sir John Simon's statements before Press representatives on Friday forenoon which, however, couched in general terms are not calculated to throw any light on conclusions which may or may not have been reached in course of the Rome discussions. At the same time Sir John Simon left no doubt that he did not favour precipitate action as regards proposed League reforms stressing that the disarmament problem was so complicated and offering so many difficulties that it should not be further entangled by linking it with another problem like that of League reform which in the British Foreign Secretary's opinion should only be taken up after the arms convention including Germany had been agreed upon.

Sir John Simon frankly admitted that diplomatic exchange of views which had been taking place in the course of the past two months had not yielded any positive results but, he added, so hopeful were all statesmen becoming, that they were convinced of the absolute necessity of finding some sort of a solution in order to prevent catastrophe.

Sir John Simon stressed, in conclusion, that no single State could stubbornly persist in the present position and that no accord could be possible without taking due account of Germany's demands as well as France's wishes. This utterance is interpreted to mean that the British Foreign Secretary has progressed an important distance from the earlier position behind the French thesis which opposed rearmament of disarmed States as one of the means bringing about adjustment of the present disproportion.—Transocean Kuo Min.

GERMAN PRESS PUZZLED

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, January 5.

The German Press confesses itself somewhat puzzled by the non-committal character of the official communique published in Rome following Mussolini and Sir John Simon's conversations. The "National Socialist" paper "Angriff" points out that the communique never once mentions the revision of armaments but merely speaks of reduction and limitation of armaments, a formula which, in the paper's opinion, favours of Geneva phraseology. "Angriff" therefore is inclined to believe that the communique was drawn up by the British Foreign Minister.

The paper adds that while some discussions naturally leave the door wide open for continuance of negotiations, yet it is difficult to perceive on what basis there can be closer co-operation between England and Italy in order to be effectual.

The "Berliner Tageblatt" is more favourably impressed by the communique, writing, "Good seed has been sown in Rome, but it is not entirely dependent on the favourable atmosphere of Rome as to whether the seed will bear, the fruit which may prove to be the remedy for Europe's ills."

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" expresses particular satisfaction at the emphasis laid by the communique on the necessity of concluding disarmament negotiations as soon as possible on the basis of practicability, which in the paper's opinion, reveals the hand of the Duce who is known to have strong aversions to abstract theories.—Transocean Kuo Min.

NO SUPPORT

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

That there is no British or Italian support for the French demands concerning "A. probation period" is the keynote of an article published in the Daily Telegraph by its diplomatic correspondent, who bases the above conclusion on a remark made in Rome by Sir John Simon.

Sir John Simon said that Germany undoubtedly possesses the right moral for equality of treatment.

BISHOP MULLER REFUSES

Demand For His Resignation

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, January 6.

The controversy within the German Protestant Church, which has given rise to much discussion, especially in the press, has entered a new phase with the Reich Bishop, Muller's, categorical refusal to comply with the demand for his resignation made by pastors of the emergency league representing the Orthodox section of the clergy.

As a counter-blast to this demand, Herr Muller has now issued a decree concerning "The Restoration of Order in the German Evangelical Church," in which he stresses that the abuse of religious services for the purpose of political controversy in any shape or form must cease. "Religious services," says Herr Muller, "must serve exclusively for preaching the pure Gospel." Hence he prohibits the use of Churches and other Ecclesiastical Buildings for political demonstrations of any kind.

The Decree further provides that the Reich Bishop, as head of the German Protestant Church, shall henceforth have full power to settle all controversies which may arise within the Church and have unrestricted authority to impose obedience on all dissenters to whatever school of thought they belong.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A TURBULENT SITUATION

London, January 5.

The Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, concluded his visit to Italy at noon yesterday, when, accompanied by Lady Simon, he left Rome for Paris.

In addition to the British Ambassador to Rome, Sir Eric Drummond, and members of the Embassy Staff, Signor Surich, Baron Aloyal and Signor Grandi were at the station to bid him farewell.

Before his departure he received press representatives and discussed with them the subjects raised during his conversations with Signor Mussolini. Reports of the interview state that Sir John Simon said that his visits to Paris and Rome had been most profitable.

The Rome visit in particular, he said, had served to amplify the ideas he already had regarding the views of the Fascist Government on the various problems weighing upon Europe.

He had welcomed the invitation of Signor Mussolini to visit Rome for he was eager to understand the views of the Fascist Government as fully as he understood those of France as the representative of the League of Nations.

Regarding the reform of the League, those with whom he had spoken in his travels, were agreed that the complex problem of Disarmament must first be discussed and a solution found which would recognise the moral equality of Germany.

Sir John Simon, who is making the journey from Paris by air, is expected in London this afternoon.—British Wireless Service.

Kowloon Defeat R.A. in Their Best Game to Date

Saturday's games in the Junior shield were well contested. The Navy, Borderers, South China "B", R.A. and Lincoln Regt. qualifying for the second round.

At Sookunpoo, the holders beat last season's Division II League champions by four clear goals.

The Borderers defeated the Young Indians after a very strenuous game.

On the Railway ground, the Lincolns got through by a narrow margin, Kowloon missing a penalty in the closing minutes.

In the senior league, Kowloon played their best game of the season, winning against the R.A. by four goals to one.

At Sookunpoo, the R. Navy won against the H.K. Club by four goals to one.

The East Lancashire Regt. added two points to their total as the result of a penalty goal against the Police at Caroline Hill.

St. Joseph's are still in the running for league honours. They defeated the Recreio at King's Park by two clear goals.

ST. JOSEPH'S STILL IN RUNNING

Navy v. H.K. Club

The Navy won this match at Sookunpoo by four goals to one. Although the play was mostly in the Club territory, the Club should have scored more than once, several chances being thrown away by faulty shooting and being slow in the goal area.

The Navy soon settled down to forcing tactics and Rodger cleared from Smith. Skinner pounced on the ball and sent in a shot that hit the bar. Smith shooting into the net before Rodger could recover. The Club then transferred and forced a corner, a shot from Hynes clearing the bar. The Club came again, but wild shooting kept Woodman from being troubled.

The Navy increased their lead through Hudspeith. Running in from the right he placed the ball in the net well out of Rodger's reach. Fowler was unlucky with a fast low shot, the ball striking the upright and going behind. A shot from E. Strange was pulled down by James inside the penalty area. S. Strange took the spot kick and beat Woodman to open the Club score. The Navy pressed and were unlucky in not registering again before the interval which arrives with the Navy leading by two goals to one.

The Navy made the game safe in the first five minutes of second half by scoring twice. Tong shot into the net from a pass by Smith and Langmead found the net with Rodger unsighted owing to Strange and Hill crowding the goalmouth.

The Club then got through, Fowler meeting a pass from Blackford shot wide. Howe had the goal at his mercy, but sent the ball straight at Woodman. Blackford went away from a pass by E. Strange, but his shot went the wrong side of the net.

James handled inside the area and S. Strange netted from the spot. A defender infringed and the referee ordered the kick to be retaken. S. Strange shooting over the bar.

Howe again worked through and with only Woodman to beat sent the ball against the upright. Meeting the ball on the rebound from the post, Howe shot wide. Result Navy 4, Club 1.

R. Navy. — Woodman; James, West; Burdon, Thomas, McQuire; Hudspeith, Smith, Langmead, Tong and Skinner.

H. K. Club. — G. Rodger; Hill, S. Strange; Skinner, Hynes, A. Duncan; Fowler, Doolin, Howe, E. Strange and Blackford.

Kowloon v. R.A.

Kowloon defeated the Gunners on the Railway ground by four goals to one in a game that was much below the standard of senior football.

Kowloon took the lead early in the game. Elliott tested Combe from close range and the Artillery keeper turned the shot on to Timberlake running in and before Combe could recover the ball was in the net.

The Gunners then took up the attack and Seal sending across the goalmouth, Snooks missed a shot by shooting over the bar from close range.

Kowloon forced a corner and from the flag kick, Timberlake headed to the crossbar and from the rebound the same player shot through a crowd of players and the ball entered the net with Combe unsighted.

The second half opened with the Gunners attacking. Knight sent a shot in and the best Cord by clearing the foot of the net. The Gunners having not to withstanding their attack, tried to level up. Kowloon then played up strongly and Timberlake again found the net to complete his "bat trick", Combe seeing the ball too late to turn out.

By a fine solo effort, Timberlake scored the best goal of the match. Receiving well out, Timberlake went through the defence and gave Combe no chance with a fast rising shot to score the fourth goal for Kowloon and incidentally his fourth goal for the match. In the closing minutes the Gunners missed several chances through wild shooting.

Kowloon F.C. — Cord, Willis, Jones, Davies, Yeoman Bliss; White, Lewis, Timberlake, Elliott and Blake.

R.A. — Combe; Allan, Wroe; Rodgers, Greenshields, Worthington; Snooks, Knight, Birmingham, Wood and Seal.

Police v. East Lancshires

A penalty goal gives East Lancs. full points.

Playing at Caroline Hill, the East Lancshires defeated the Police by a goal to nil.

There was not much excitement in the play between these teams and on the run of the play a goalless draw would have been a correct result, as both sets of forwards were out of shooting practice.

The Police had a chance early in the game to take the lead, but wild shooting by Moss lost the chance.

Moss got through again and with only the goalkeeper to beat shot hard against the crossbar.

Salmon did good work for the Lancshires, but his fine centres went begging. A free kick to the Police just outside the penalty area gave the Police a chance, but the Lancshires defence cleared.

After playing a blank first half, the teams livened up for a time, but play again fell off. McHardy did well in the Police goal, the Lancshires having the better of the exchanges.

Hands against Britain inside the penalty area gave the Lancs. a chance to take the lead and Woods shot into the net from the spot kick.

The Police then went all out to level up, but the Lancshires defence held out.

McHardy and Horner met heavily in a raid on the Police goal and Horner was forced to retire with a damaged ankle.

There was no scoring besides the penalty kick and a slow game ended in favour of the East Lancshires by the only goal scored.

H.K. Police. — McHardy; Blackburne, C. Pile, Gough, Stephens, Brittain, T. Pile, Brooks, Moss, Green and Brown.

East Lancshires. — Fenn; Swain, Gorman; Ball, Thompson, North; Sandford, Woods, Lawton, Horner and Lt. Salmon.

Recreio v. St. Joseph's

The Recreio almost gave the St. Joseph's team a fright at King's Park, although the visitors won by two clear goals, the Recreio were a little unlucky in not scoring.

The game throughout was very keen, the Recreio having as much of the game as St. Joseph's although the home team lacked that finish necessary to score goals.

Before St. Joseph's could settle down, the Recreio boys made raids on the Saints goal, but shooting was very wild. Castilho should have opened the score early in the game as with only Marques to beat sent the ball over the bar.

Gonsalves went very close with a header from a pass by Castilho, St. Joseph's then settled down and a fine shot from Ward opened the score, giving E. Marques no chance.

Gonsalves put the Saints two up before the interval, heading in from a pass by Lawrence.

The second half went in favour of the St. Joseph's team in mid-

JUNIOR SHIELD

R. Navy v. Athletic.

Playing at Sookunpoo, the Navy defeated the Athletic in the Junior Shield by four clear goals.

The Athletic were forced to defend most of the game, the Navy fielding a strong side.

Only one goal was scored during the first half, Fairless shooting in and Ng Tak Wing deflecting into the net.

The Navy put on three goals during the second half. McNeil heading in from a corner kick, Sherlock scoring with a fine shot from close range, and Shewbrook scoring directly from a flag kick.

The Athletic failed to score throughout the game.

R.A.F. v. South China "B"

Playing on the Catham Road ground before a large attendance, South China defeated the Airmen by four goals to two. The wind upset the play, the players having a job to judge the flight of the ball.

The Airmen took the lead through Noad and for a time had South China defer ing. Tong Man-Hing scored for South China, but the scores level. Cheung Ping Lung gave them the lead and before the interval, Mok Sang headed into the net to give the visitors a three to one lead.

Tat got through early in the second half for the Airmen who fought hard to pull the game round. Allen in trying to clear a dropping shot put the ball into his own net.

A penalty to the Airmen raised the hopes of their supporters but much to their dismay, Noad shot very wide.

There was no further scoring, the result being, South China "B" 4, R.A.F. 2.

S.W. Borderers v. Young Indians

Playing on the Happy Valley ground, the Borderers defeated the Indians by three clear goals.

On the run of the play, the Borderers were well winners although there were not three goals difference in the play.

The Borderers opened the score from a penalty kick. Morris was fouled inside the area and Herbert converted from the spot.

The Indians then got going and forced a fruitless corner.

The Borderers increased their lead when Court shot into the net from a crowd of players.

Indians were awarded a penalty, Haroon being brought down in the area. A.M. Omar took the spot kick, but Williams cleared.

Another penalty to the Borderers was saved by A. K. Omar from a shot by Herbert.

Before the final whistle sounded, Morris scored for the Borderers to win the match by three clear goals.

Kowloon v. Lincoln Regt.

Kowloon almost gave the Lincolns a shock in their tussle on the Railway ground, the military team just getting home.

Kowloon played much better football than they have done in league matches, and were unlucky to lose.

The Lincolns did not have matters all their own way and Kowloon should have levelled up in the closing minutes when awarded a penalty. Docherty took the spot kick and the ball striking the upright came back to him and he was penalised for kicking the ball twice without an opponent playing the ball.

The only goal of the match was scored by Evans for the Lincolns. McQuade had a chance to level up for Kowloon, White placing close in.

South China "A" v. R.A.

Playing at Caroline Hill, South China "A" lost to the Gunners by the only goal scored.

The Gunners should have won by a much larger margin, pressing mostly throughout the first half.

YESTERDAY'S FOOTBALL

S.W.B. Beat Athletic

At Sookunpoo the Borderers defeated the Athletic by the odd goal to three. The Borderers opened the score early in the game and it appeared that the scoring would be great. The three goals were scored in about fifteen minutes. By the advantage in midfield play, the Borderers should have more than doubled their score, but the Athletic backs, well supported by Li Kwok Ki in goal, kept them out.

Fourty lobbed the ball over the heads of several defenders and Mathias having the advantage in height, nodded the ball into the net to open the score.

Podmore sent out to the left and Duncan with a fast low shot sent against the foot of the upright and the ball rebounded into the net to put the Borderers two up.

The Athletic then had a period of attacking and after forcing a corner they came through and Cheung sending across from the left, Au Kim Fung beat Smith and opened the score for the Athletic.

With this reverse, the Borderers showed a falling off, the forwards, losing control of the ball close in.

The second half opened with the Borderers raiding the Athletic area, a shot from Mathias almost getting home. Duncan got in a fine cross shot that beat Li, but the back got behind and cleared from the goal line.

The Borderers should have scored several times, but there was a little bit wanted for them to get the ball into the net.

S. W. Borderers. — Smith; Mul-lane, Morrison; Wallace, Podmore, Jones; Mathias, Harris, Fourty, Hazlewood, and Duncan.

Athletic. — Li Kwok Ki; Mak Sui Hon, Lo Hon Cheong; Leung Tze Cheung, Ip Ping Fai, Chan Sui Man; Tang Kwong Sum, Ho Choi Yin, Au Ping Ming, Au Kim Fung and Cheung Ming Wing.

SOUTH CHINA v. LINCOLNS.

All the stands were packed for the return game between the Lincolns and South China at Caroline Hill.

South China won by the only goal scored and took revenge for their defeat at Sookunpoo earlier in the season.

The game was keenly contested throughout and both teams tried hard for the lead which came to South China in the closing minutes.

The Lincolns took some time to settle down, while South China were on the mark from the kick off. It was a fight between the forwards and the defences, the defence holding the upper hand.

South China defenders made better clearances and greatly assisted their forwards in kicking up the ball, while the Lincolns defenders were kicking to clear, leaving their forwards to furrage about for the ball.

Cheers went up everytime a South China forward received the ball and for the first ten minutes the Lincolns defence was hard pressed. Hocquard raised the hopes of the Lincoln supporters when the raced down the wing, but no one was up to turn the ball into the net. The Lincolns improved and their defence was now playing a setday game. Deacon was beaten by Tam Kong Pak, but Edminton got behind him and cleared from the goal line. Pak Ka Ping was several times tested with hard shots, but he managed to keep his charge intact. A free kick taken by Cork was well cleared by Pau. A corner to the South China team gave them the victory. Yeung Shui Yick placed well from the flag, but the ball was sent back to him. Placing well, the second time, Tam Kong Pak got his head to the ball and sent it pass Deacon to win the match for his side. In the closing minutes the Lincolns tried hard to make the scores level, but South China's defence kept on top and the final whistle brought relief, South China winning by a goal to nil.

South China. — Pau Ka Ping; Li Tin Sang, Lau Mau; Leung In Chan, Leung Wing Chul, Tong Kwai; Yeung Shui Yick, Tay Quee Liang, Fung King Cheong, Tam Kong Pak and Li Shek Yu.

St. Andrew's Ladies' hockey eleven maintained their position at the top of the league table for the Caer Clark Cup when they met and defeated the "Y" Ladies on Saturday by three goals to nil. All the goals were scored in the second half.

The absence of the Daisel sisters weakened the "Y" team somewhat, but they put up a fine resistance in the opening half. SCOTLAND BEAT ENGLAND Exciting Game at Sookunpoo.

Scotland scored a deserved win over England in the Hongkong Ladies International match. Scotland led by 3 goals to 1 at the interval and finished up winners by 6 goals to 3.

England fielded only ten players in the absence of Miss King.

C. Ferguson (3), E. Bonnar (2) and J. Daisel scored for the winners, while J. Churchill (2) and M. Bishop scored for England.

For the winners C. Blackburn, 19th Battery defeat Germans.

The 19th Battery, R.A. defeated the German Club at Caroline Hill yesterday by 4 goals to 2, after being two goals all in the first half.

All four goals for the winners came from the Gunners' centre forward, while Lange and Muller scored for the German Club. Van Essen, the Canton Captain, was a strong addition to the German side.

M.C.C. IN INDIAN

India's Bad Start

Calcutta, January 6. A crowd of 6,000 was present when D. R. Jardine (42) and Levet (40) continued the England innings this morning at 257 for 6. The weather was sunny and the wicket was wearing well.

With Jardine doing the majority of the scoring the partnership added 24 runs before Levet was clean bowled by C. K. Naidu, captain of the Indian team. 281-6-5.

Without a run added Jardine left as the result of a catch by C. S. Naidu, brother of the Indian skipper, 281-7-61.

Jardine had played a dogged innings, scoring his 61 out of 148 in 175 minutes and hitting only four boundaries.

Townsend and Nichols saw the third century hoisted before the Essex all-rounder stepped in front of a straight one from Mohamed Nissar, the fast-bowler. 301-8-13.

Verity, the Yorkshire slow bowler, then joined Townsend in a productive ninth wicket stand which produced 70 runs before lunch was taken at 371 for 8. Townsend being 40 and Verity 37.

The England innings closed after lunch for the addition of 332 runs, of which Verity hit 18, being undefeated with 55 to his credit.

In partnership with Townsend against an Indian XI on the same ground earlier in the week Verity scored 92 and took part in a tury stand for the ninth wicket.

Scores:—England—1st Innings..... 403 India—1st Innings..... 247 India followed on and were 30 Reuter.

M. K. Lowe, J. Daisel, E. Bonnar and C. Ferguson were outstanding, while the losers were best represented by E. Gray, B. Heibling and J. Churchill.

Teams:—Scotland.—M. Bird; C. Blackburn, E. Robertson; M. Wallace, A. Owen-Hughes, M. E. Lowe; J. Daisel, J. Whyte, E. Bonnar, C. Ferguson and B. Goldman.

TRAINING GALLOPS

Australians Continue To Impress In Tryouts

(BY "MORNING DEW")

From the training times given below it will be seen that the new Australian ponies are galloping remarkably well and it is evident that the ponies now in training are in a class by themselves. On Saturday Bag Tor and Machel went together over a mile, taking 1.58.3 over the whole journey.

Princess Angeline went over a whole mile, and the time for the last six furlongs will be found below. He was moving very easily.

Mr. Frost took The Goose over the mile and a half and his last half mile took 1.00.1 which is excellent work, considering the fact that the time for the full journey was only 3.19.1. Another pony which went over the mile and half was Fanling Fox. He, too, was very convincing.

Vriday went over a mile and a quarter in slow time, but was stretched over the home straight when he responded beautifully.

Mr. Benny Proulx took Nell Gwyn over a mile, but the pony, although returning a fast time, did not seem to finish too well.

Coming to the subscription griffins, it will be noticed that Sarabande did a very fine gallop over six furlongs and another good gallop was that of Chow Fan over a mile and a half. Can Catchy went over a mile in 2.17.3 (a very good time indeed) but finished up tired.

Chief Seattle (Mrs. Dunbar's griffin) went over six furlongs in convincing style and the gallops of Garry and Ribble were not bad. Prima Donna went very well indeed, and Soldier of China who went out late in the morning took 3.34 for the mile and a half, the last quarter being 31.4 and the last half mile 2.28.3.

The following times were clocked this morning:—

CHINA FLEET BOXING

Ewin Beats Fraggott
LAKE WINS A GOOD FIGHT

The much discussed fight between Harry Ewin and H. B. Fraggott took place at the Lee Theatre on Saturday night when the China Fleet, Boxing Championships were held, and dominating the fight from the very start, Ewin scored an easy win over his opponent although Fraggott showed that he was a boxer well above the average.

Another excellent fight was witnessed when leading Mr. Lake met P. O. Hall in the final of the lightweights. Although Lake was the more experienced man, Hall put up a clever fight and scored some excellent points.

At the conclusion of the programme, H.E. the Commander-in-Chief made a short speech in which he said he was sure he was voicing the sentiments of the spectators in appreciation of the very fine sporting spirit and fitness displayed by the boxers taking part in the programme and congratulated them on putting on such an excellent show. He congratulated H.M.S. Berwick on taking five of the challenge cups.

The following were the results:
Heavy-Weight Semi-Final:
Tel. Johnson (Berwick) beat A. R. Barber (Suffolk) on points. St. Pryall (Suffolk) beat St. King (Kent) on the Referee's decision after a draw.

FEWER BAD DEBTS

Lloyds And Midland Bank Issue Reports

London, January 6.
Two more of the leading British Banks, Lloyds and the Midland Bank, have announced their profits and dividends for the past year. As in the case of Barclay's and Martin's Banks whose results have been issued earlier, the dividends are maintained and despite a record low level of money rates during 1933, the profits in most cases so far announced have increased.

This is partly attributable to the smaller amounts required to provide for bad debts. British Wireless.

Prague, January 5.
The Foreign Ministry issues a formal announcement of the postponement of the Little Entente conference which date is now fixed at the end of the month. GERMANY'S DEBT POLICY

Discrimination Against British Lenders

London, January 5.
It is learned from well-informed circles that the British Government have intimated to Germany the possibility of retaliatory action, falling a satisfactory reply in regard to the British protests against the Reichsbank's reduction of interest payments to British long and medium-term lenders, and also in regard to Germany's financial policy of discrimination in favour of other nationals.—Reuter.

distributed the trophies at the conclusion. By kind permission of Captain L. V. Wells D.B.O., President of the China Fleet Boxing Association, the Royal Marine Band of the Aircraft Carrier Eagle rendered selections before the programme commenced and during the intermission.

ANGLO --- FRENCH TRADE

Jeopardised by Export Quotas

London, January 6.
The recent decision of the French Government to reduce the import quota licences in respect of United Kingdom cotton goods by 75 per cent. was discussed at a meeting of exporters at Manchester, yesterday.

The meeting decided to urge the British Government to take strong action to protect the interest of British Trade.

It was emphasised that the reduction in quotas entirely nullified any benefits from the recent abolition of the 15 per cent. surtax on British goods to France.

The meeting suggested that the quotas be fully restored pending the anticipated Anglo-French commercial discussions.—Reuter.

BRITISH OPINION DISTURBED

London, January 5.
The full implications of the revision, by France, of her import quotas, are being carefully studied in responsible quarters here, and opinion is much disturbed.

Special attention is directed to the unfavourable effect of these trading restrictions on the prospects of the early initiation of the negotiations for an Anglo-French commercial agreement.—British Wireless Service.

CONGO AND TIN QUOTA

Production & Period Inadequate

Brussels, January 6.
Belgian Congo tin producers to-day held a meeting to discuss the International Tin Committee's overtures, and decided that owing to the rapid increase in Congo production Belgium would be unable to undertake the agreement for a longer period than two years, whereas the currency of the present scheme was three years.

Moreover, the Committee had so far offered a quota of 10,000 and 12,000 tons for 1934 and 1935 respectively, while Belgium requires 17,000 tons.—Reuter.

RUMANIA AND ITALY

Il Duce Signs New Trade Treaty

Rome, December 6.
A new Italo-Rumanian commercial treaty, replacing all the existing commercial agreements between the two countries, was signed by the Italian Premier, Signor Mussolini, and the Rumanian Minister to Italy, yesterday.—Reuter.

THE BIBLE MANUSCRIPT

Their Majesties Send In Subscription

London, January 6.
Among the contributions received towards the purchase of the Bible Manuscript from Mount Sinai are £100 from the King and £25 from the Queen.

These donations were accompanied by an expression of great interest taken by their Majesties in the steps taken by the Trustees of the British Museum to acquire the Manuscript.

Satisfactory progress is being made with the public appeal for £250,000, required to complete the purchase. The Government have promised the other £250,000 of price. The purchase money for the Manuscript is by an undertaking given by the vendors to be spent in Britain.—British Wireless
